

THE LIVER QUARANTINE

"TAKING HIS MEALS OUT."

Hurried eating has ruined many a man's stomach. The digestion-destriving process is gradual, often unnoticed at first. But it is only a short time until the liver balks, the digestive organs give way, and almost countless ills assail the man who endeavors to economize time at the expense of his health.

A torpid liver causes a quarantine of the entire system. It locks in the diseased germs and body poisons and affords them full play, inviting some serious illness. In families where Angust Flower is used, a sluggish liver and constipation are unknown, so are all stomach ailments, as well as indigestion, dyspepsia, heartburn, headaches and kidney and bladder affections. No well-regulated family should be without this standard remedy.

Good Cough Medicine for Children.

The season for coughs and colds is now at hand and too much care cannot be used to protect the children. A child is much more likely to contract diphtheria or scarlet fever when he has a cold. The quicker you cure his cold the less the risk. Chamberlain's Cough Remedy is the sole reliance of many mothers, and few of those who have tried it are willing to use any other. Mrs. F. F. Starcher, of Ripley, W. Va., says, "I have never used anything other than Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for my children and it has always given good satisfaction." This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic and may be given as confidently to a child as to an adult. For sale by W. T. Brooks. You need no other guarantee.

Unfortunate Allusion.

"Uncle," said the impecunious nephew, "you ought to go and see the new play. You would just die of laughing." The old man merely glared. A few minutes later there could be heard the sound of a scratching pen as he altered his will.—Stray Stories.

The Illyrians.

The Illyrian province formed a short-lived government, being instituted by Napoleon in 1809, from various territories taken from Austria, north and east of the Adriatic. The government was abolished in 1814-15. The ancient Illyrians are now represented by the Albanians, which fact doubtless gave the little kingdom its title.

Get Jail Sentences.

The contempt case of the Buck's stove and Range Company, a president Gompers, Vice President Mitchell and Secretary Morrison, of the American Federation of Labor, was decided by Justice Wright, of the Appellate Court of the district of Columbia, adversely to the Federation officials. Gompers was sentenced to twelve months imprisonment, Mitchell to nine months and Morrison to six months. The case grew out of the alleged boycott of the company's products and the putting of that company on the unfair list, and the Federation's alleged violation of Judge Gould's recent mandamus.

The fifteen confederate soldiers in the Confederate Home at Pewee Valley, who enlisted from Bourbon, were remembered Christmas day by Richard Hawes Chapter, Daughters of the Confederacy, who sent by express a large box of Christmas delicacies, consisting of one dozen large cakes, jars of preserves, fruits, nuts, of all kinds and chickens.

Must Furnish Inducements.

A New York scientist who has made a study of longevity is responsible for the startling statement that man ought to live forever. At present there are not enough inducements to make everlasting life on earth desirable. The scientist must find a way of guaranteeing a living as well as life.

Change Easily Made.

Five-year-old Helen was industriously hemming a square of pink gingham for a doll's table cover. She held it up and examined it critically. "Mother," she said, "I don't think this is a very stylish tablecloth. I guess I'll put a pair of sleeves in it and call it a corset cover."—The Delineator.

The Lexington Herald for 1909.

The Lexington Herald announces its annual bargain offer for $5.00 per year to mail subscribers who pay a year in advance before January 15th. This applies only to mail subscribers who are not in arrears. Heavy Fines.

The Supreme Court of Missouri has upheld the contentions of the Attorney General in the ouster suit of the State against the Waters-Pierce Oil Company, the Standard Oil Company of Indiana, and Republic Oil Company of Ohio, finding each of the defendants $50,000 and oustering them from the State. The court was unanimous in its opinion. The result is a great victory for Attorney General Hadley, who was a pioneer in his fight against the oil trust.

A Big Christmas Ship.

The biggest Christmas ship that ever sailed the seas left New York the other day bound for Europe. It was the big Lusitania which holds the world's speed record for crossing the Atlantic. It carried over $4,000,000 worth of Christmas presents and 4,900 sacks of Christmas mail. These presents were sent by foreigners in this country to home-folks across the sea.

"Fear Malady" Lasting.

As a rule a "fear" malady seldom approaches the bounds of lunacy, although occasionally it is accompanied by true hallucinations. A cure is always difficult and usually doubtful. The person born with a fear of blood, corpses, of high places or of sharp instruments, retains it all his life. Only rarely do educational influences rid him of it.—New Haven Palladium.
